

Department of Economics

Annual Reports 2019-20

Preface :

5. Economics Day Celebrations:

5.1) World Population Day: (July 11, 2019)

Population study is most important in economics and development. Each and every planning and policy making on the basis of population. World Population Day was held on July 11, 2019. Introductory remarks of the program were performed by the person in the chair, this was Dr. Vanita Pochhi. The keynote speaker was guided by Prof. Shri Somawanshi. The event was attended by student professors of colleges. The program was conducted and the proposed Prof., Dr. Sunita Kalakhe did, while thanks were given by Prof. Pandit. Dr. Kadam, Prof. Katole, Dr. Mule, Dr. Hemke, Prof. Padghan, Prof. Devmane were present on this occasion.

5.2) Anti Tobacco Workshop (11 July 2019):

Tobacco eating is a bad habit, it is an invitation to cancer. To raise awareness of 5.3. Subject Introductions (23 August 2019) : Subject induction programme organized for B.A. 1st year students to introduce the economics subject and rules, regulation, Examination procedure of university, and to know facilities available in college and aims and objectives of our parent Institute Shri Shivaji Education Society Amravati and culture of college, and welcome to all students.

2. National Webinar (July 31, 2020):

The Department of Economics and Commerce organized a national level webinar on Indian Economy and Covid-19 (Covid-19 effect on Indian Economy). Poet Bahinabai Chaudhary of the Department of Management, North Maharashtra University, Jalgaon, Prof.. Dr. Ramesh Sardar was present as the keynote speaker. The National Webinar was presided over by Principal Dr. Anil Garode. Dr. Raju Gavai is the introductory speaker of this program encoring by Prof. Sunita Kalakhe, Thank Performed by Prof.Suresh Gavai. This webinar was attended by 320 studies from across the country.

3. State Level Seminar (13 February 2021):

Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj of Nagpur University, Department of Post Graduate Economics, Prof.Dr. Dheeraj Kadam's lecture was concluded. The lecture was presided over by Principal Dr. Anil Garole. Dr. Vanita Pochhi, Prof. Dilip Mahajan and others participated. The program is run by Prof. Dr. Sunita Kalakhe Tar Abhar. According to Prof Ankit Kale, 112 students participated in the progr

4. Economics quiz

The following three types of quiz competitions were held throughout the year.

4.1 District Quiz (May 1, 2020)

Covid-19 and the general knowledge examination of economics at the district level on the subject of financial status was conducted using the website TextMooz. The exam consisted of 20 questions. 120 students participated in it.

4.2 National Quiz (April 3, 2021):

The national level general knowledge quiz competition on the subject of economics was conducted using the technology of Google Forms. The competition was attended by 291 students from twelve universities. All contestants were given certificates of participation.

4.3 Research Methods Quiz

A quiz competition was conducted on the topic of research methods in which questions were asked on the basic information, techniques, methods of research methods.

5. PhD course:

Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University Amravati has been teaching Economics and Research Methodology course by Zoom, Audio Conference, Direct, Phone by the affiliated Economics Research Center. With this, two students participated and got excellent marks and passed the examination on PhD course. As the center coordinator for this research center, Prof. Dr. Imtihak Jukalkar and Principal Dr. Guided by Anil Garode.

Names of successful research students:

1. Shri Raju Balasaheb Bade

2. Gyanoba Datta Chavan

6. State National Level Student Performance : in the 07 event students win prize