Constitutional Provisions for Minority

The safeguards for the protection of interests of minorities are mandated in the following provisions of Constitution of India:

- Article 15 (1) & (2) - Prohibition of discrimination against citizens on grounds of religion, race, caste, sex or place of birth.
- Article 16(1)&(2) - Citizens' right to 'equality of opportunity' in matters relating to employment or appointment to any office under the State, and prohibition in this regard of any discrimination on grounds of religion, race, caste, sex or place of birth.

(iii) Article 25(1) - People's freedom of conscience and right to freely profess, practice and propagate religion – subject to public order, morality and other Fundamental Rights.

(iv) Article 26 - Right of every religious denomination or any section thereof – subject to public order, morality and health – to establish and maintain institutions for religious and charitable purposes, manage its own affairs in matters of religion, and own and acquire movable and immovable property and administer it in accordance with law.

(v) Article 28 - People's freedom as to attendance at religious instruction or religious worship in educational institutions wholly maintained, recognized, or aided by the State.

(vi) Article 29(2) - Non-denial of admission to any citizen to any educational institution maintained or aided by the State, on grounds only of religion, race, caste, language or any of them.

(vii) Article 30(1) - Right of all religious and linguistic minorities to establish and administer educational institutions of their choice.

(viii) Article 30(1A) - State laws providing for compulsory acquisition of property of minority educational institutions shall ensure that compensation amount to be paid does not restrict or abrogate the right guaranteed above.

(ix) Article 30(2) - Freedom of minority-managed educational institutions from discrimination in the matter of receiving aid from the State.
