Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) & its Objectives:

The Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) is established in Shri Shivaji Science & Arts College, Chikhli, Dist. Bandana, under the University Grants Commission (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of Women Employees and Students in Higher Education Institutions) Regulations, 2015. It comprises students a Presiding Officer, two or three faculty members from each faculty, and one outside member from a non-governmental organisation or association committed to the cause of women or a person familiar with the issues relating to sexual harassment, nominated by the Executive Authority

Objective of Internal Complaint Committee:

- To provide a safe and secure work environment to every female worker and girls students.
- To take consistent action for prevention, prohibition and redressal of complaints received regarding sexual harassment and gender discrimination of women personnel at the workplace.
- To make recommendations to the management to lay down procedures for the prohibition, resolution, settlement and prosecution of acts of discrimination and sexual harassment, by the students and the employees.
- To forceful implementation of the policies relating to the prevention of sexual harassment.
- Strive to resolve complaints by the aggrieved complainant, and henceforth, recommend actions to be taken by the employer.

ICC, Shri Shivaji Science & Arts College, Chikhli, Dist. Buldana, deals with cases of sexual harassment of the students or employees in the college and provides mechanism of dispute redressal. Its promoters the empowerment of women and has zero tolerance for any kind of sexual harassment. ICC diligently work towards providing a secure environment to students, teaching and non-teaching staff. Complaint boxes have been placed in the college premises.

Sexual Harassment defined as:

“An unwanted conduct with sexual undertones if it occurs or which is persistent and which demeans, humiliates or creates a hostile and intimidating environment or is calculated to induce submission by actual or threatened adverse consequences and induces any one or more or all of the following unwelcome acts or behaviour (whether directly or by implication), namely:

Any unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature;

- Demand or request for sexual favors
- Making sexually colored remarks
- Physical contact and advances
- Showing pornography”.

Functions of the Internal Complaint Committee

The Internal Complaints Committee once constituted, plays a pivotal role in the effective implementation of the provisions at the workplace.

A general list of duties of the Committee is enumerated as follows:

- Implementation of the Anti–Sexual Harassment Policy at the workplace

- Submit an Annual Report (Including details like the number of case files at their disposal, etc.)
- Bring about awareness about what comprises ‘sexual harassment’ at the workplace by way of workshops, posters, documents, notices, seminars, etc.
- Publicize the policy framework effectively
- Provide the victims with a safe and accessible mechanism of complaint
- Initiation of inquiry at the earliest
- Redress the complaints in a judicious manner
- Provide interim relief to the complainant
- Provide an opportunity for conciliation wherever possible
- Stick to the principles of natural justice at all stages of the proceedings
- Whenever required, forward the complaint to the police
- Submit the inquiry report along with recommendations
- Maintain confidentiality in regard to the proceedings taking place before the Committee

Timeline of the Complaint

- Submission of Complaint-Within 3 months of the last incident
- Notice to the Respondent-Within 7 days of receiving a copy of the complaint
- Completion of Inquiry-Within 90 days
- Submission of Report-Within 10 days of completion of the inquiry
- Implementation of Recommendations-Within 60 days
- Appeal-Within 90 days of the recommendations

We commit ourselves to a zero-tolerance policy towards sexual harassment and reinforce our commitment to making our campus free from discrimination, harassment, retaliation or sexual assault at all levels. If a student, faculty member or non-faculty staff member faces any discomfort under the above-mentioned heads, he or she can directly approach the committee.

An aggrieved person is required to submit a written complaint to the ICC within three months from the date of the incident, and in case of a series of incidents within a period of three months from the date of the last incident. Provided that where such complaint cannot be made in writing, the Presiding Officer or any Member of the Internal Complaints Committee shall render all reasonable assistance to the person for making the complaint in writing. For the reasons accorded in the writing, the ICC could extend the time limit by a period not exceeding three months, if it is satisfied that the circumstances were such which prevented the person from filing a complaint within the said period. Friends, relatives, colleagues, co-students, a psychologist, or any other associate of the victim may file the complaint in situations where the aggrieved person is unable to make a complaint on account of physical or mental incapacity or death.

The complainant may contact the committee members through the given e-mail ID or phone numbers.

National and International Commemorative Days, Events and Festivals

1) International Yoga Day:

21st June is celebrated as the International Yoga Day all over the world. This idea was proposed by our prime minister Narendra Modi. Yoga is an ancient physical, mental and spiritual practice that originated in India. The word ‘yoga’ derives from Sanskrit and means to join or to unite, symbolizing the union of body and consciousness. Today it is practiced in various forms around the world and continues to grow in popularity.

Department of Physical Education celebrates International Yoga Day since its inception every year. The International Yoga Day is celebrated enthusiastically under the guidance of Principal, Dr. A. M. Garode through online mode due to COVID-19 pandemic. Principal Dr. A. M. Garode encouraged the college staff and students to practice regular yoga to remain fit and improve concentration. He also highlighted that we can fight against COVID-19 pandemic by boosting our immunity and Yoga plays a vital role in boosting our immunity as well as issues related to respiratory system.

11) Republic Day:

After 200 years of British rule, when India gained Independence from the United Kingdom on August 15, 1947, it did not have a permanent constitution of its own. The Constitution of India, which was adopted by the Constituent Assembly on November 26, 1949, came into effect on January 26, 1950, since that day India started celebrating January 26 as Republic Day.

The Faculty, Staff, NCC, NSS and other students of the institution all come together under one umbrella to celebrate this occasion and spread the message of sovereignty, socialism, secularism, democratic republic, assuring justice, equality, liberty and fraternity included in Constitution of India.

On this auspicious day our Principal Dr. N. B. Bhusari hoisted the national flag. After National Anthem – Jana Gana Mana, Hon. Principal in his speech addressed about the duties and responsibilities to serve the nation and make every possible effort to make our democracy strong.

On this occasion Principal Dr. A. M. Garode, felicitated NCC cadets for their achievements in NCC activities on various levels thought the year.

National and International Commemorative Days, Events and Festivals

1) International Yoga Day:

21st June is celebrated as the International Yoga Day all over the world. This idea was proposed by our prime minister Narendra Modi. Yoga day is celebrated to spread awareness about the importance and effects of yoga on the health of the people. Yoga is an ancient physical, mental and spiritual practice which gives calmness, peace, confidence and courage to the people through which they can do several activities in a better way.

Department of Physical Education celebrates International Yoga Day since its inception for the college staff and students every year. The International Yoga Day is celebrated enthusiastically under the guidance of Principal, Dr. A. M. Garode. College promotes health benefits among the faculty and students through Yoga and Meditation. Practicing Yoga is known to improve flexibility, balance, endurance and physical strength while Meditation helps to keep the mind sharp and clear relieves stress and improves overall well-being.

On this occasion hands on training were given to college staff and students by Mr. Sachin Kokode, Director Physical Education, about Techniques of Meditation and Asanas (various postures) for healthy and stress-free life.
