Eco-friendly Ganesh Idol Preparation Workshop

Objective: Protecting Environment and encouraging Ecofriendly practice of Ganesh Festival Celebration and to bring it to the notice of students, the water pollution caused by Ganesh Festival Celebration

It has been found that Plaster of Paris is used as a major material to mould the Ganesh idol which contains harmful chemicals such as magnesium, gypsum, sulphur, and phosphorus. The colours which are used to paint the idols also contain harmful chemicals and the decoration material made of thermocol and plastic is not biodegradable. The immersion of these idols into the water kills the aquatic plants and animals. Even the water bodies like ponds and rivers which are source of potable water get contaminated resulting into health issues. Therefore it is must to find out an alternative way to celebrate the festival and keep the environment safe.

We need to adopt is of preparing the idols from clay and for painting organic colours should be used. Biodegradable material like Wood, cloth and paper can be used for decoration. The method of preparing Ganesh idol from clay was demonstrated to the students. Later students also tried their hand preparing the idol from clay. Problems Encountered: The participant students were unable to mould attractive idols from clay. Some of the students opined that the charm of the festival celebration will be lost if simple idols made from clay are installed. Evidence of Success: All the participant students decided to celebrate the Ganesh festival with the idol made of clay and to use biodegradable material for decoration. These students also decided to make their neighbors' aware about water pollution and the ecofriendly way of Ganesh festival celebration.

To create awareness about water pollution and soil pollution 'Eco-friendly Ganesh Idol Preparation Workshop' was organized on 28th August 2018. About 150 students and some people from society participated and prepare Ganesh Idol from salu soil.
